Hello church family,

“The backslider likes the preaching that wouldn’t hit the side of a house, while the real disciple is delighted when the truth brings him to his knees.”

— Billy Sunday

It's five days before Thanksgiving as I write this. So here is what I'm thankful for...

My wife.

My daughter.

My parents.

My friends.

Every dog I've ever had.

Socksthecat

My salvation.

My calling.

You.

For eleven years you guys have tolerated me, supported me, accepted me.

You are the most generous people I've ever known. Your kindness is an example to the world of what a Christian is. Your generous souls have reached around the world, glorifying Jesus Christ to the glory of God the Father.

Most of all, thank you for allowing me to preach the Word of God, uncompromising and un watered-down. Thank you for living out the second part of Billy Sunday's quote above. And thank you for continuing to come back week after week, even when the preaching is direct and life has beat you up.

Alexandria Baptist Church - you are an amazing group of people.

Philippians 1:3 - NLT - Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God.

I love you guys. Thank you for the privilege.

INFORMATION

Annual reports are due to Patti by January 4th!

Homebound Baskets

Thank you for your generous support. We ended up giving out eight baskets to our Homebound and loved ones in our church. These were delivered by our youth the Sunday before Thanksgiving. These baskets helped our members know we love and care for them and that they're in our prayers. Thank you again.

Families Helping Families

Thank you as always for stepping up to make Christmas better for the two families we are supporting this year. An update will be given on this outreach in the January newsletter!
